FORTUNE CASH

WHITE PAPER

Audience

This white paper aims to inform potential investors and interested individuals on the elements, mechanics, and the direction of FortuneCash. Also, the tokens of the Cashverse in general.

Below, demonstrated in detail is the unique tokenomics system operated by the project's contract.

One token to rule them all is the motto of this project, and it literally does just that. Whenever a purchase or a sale happens, a part goes into our further tokens , thus increasing the volume and consequently the rewards of our investors.

Thanks to FortuneCash's low tax, this token is perfect for trading and thus promises continuous cash flow into our two other projects.
Win – Win!

Tokenomics Part 1

FortuneCash's Tokenomics:

- Total Token Supply: 10,000,000
- 8% Buy and Sell Tax
    - 6% LotteryTax
    - 2% TeamTax

Auto-Distribution to Lottery:

FortuneCash's Contract collects 8% taxes in the form of FortuneCash tokens with every purchase. Once the Contract has collected a certain amount of FortuneCash, the next sell triggers the automatic purchase of ADACash or SOLCash and sends them automatically to the respective lottery. The purchase of ADACash and SOLCash happens alternately. At the same time, the TeamShare is also converted to BNB.

FortuneCash Lottery Tokenomics

Lottery Metrics:

The weekly lottery drawing works as follows:

70% of the collected prize pool is distributed to 3 winners.  This is divided as follows.

- The first place receives 60%
- The second place receives 25%
- The third place receives 15%

20% of the total prize pool will be carried over to the next lottery drawing.

5% of the prize pool goes to the team for further development and marketing

5% of the prize pool is burned

Lottery 2.0

FortuneCash provides the next level lottery system in the Crypto Ecosystem!

FortuneCash offers a very unique token system unlike any other out on the market. Every buy and sell that is made there is a 8% tax. This tax then is collected and is used alternately for the purchase of ADACash and SOLCash. After the purchase, the tokens are then sent to the respective lottery system which is drawn on a weekly basis.

How the lottery works is 70% of the collected price pool is distributed to 3 winners.
